THE WILDERNESS COLLECTION

The Inspiration

This collection draws power from the agile, strategic movements of insects—the Praying Mantis and the Spider—and the powerful, rhythmic force of the pendulum. The focus is on unique forms that challenge the body's natural limits for coordination and strength.

The Creative Leap

We designed specialized structures that encourage diverse locomotion—crawling, swinging, and traversing. The resulting forms are visually striking, translating the insect's strategic genius into challenging and rewarding paths for physical mastery
